
WANAARING.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

December 2.

Since my last the weather has been very changeable, the glass reading as high as 112 degrees in the shade one day and only 60 degrees the next, hence colds similar to influenza are very prevalent.

The old established blacksmith and wheelwright shop presided over for a number of years by Wm. Pickering has changed hands, passing to Messrs. Newton and Northcote, who should do well, it being the only shop in the district, which is a large one.

Work at the Paroo bridge is at a standstill, the contractors, Messrs. Fitzmaurice and Roche having filed their schedule.

The collection of the Electoral lists for Wanaaring and Talyeale divisions of the Bourke electorate have been completed, and the lists forwarded to the Chief Electoral Officer. The number of names of Wanaaring division is 139 and on Talyeale division 22 only.

An auctioneer's license was on Tuesday, 28th ultimo, granted to Mr. John F. Gower of Wanaaring.

DRINK Glover's Hop Beer. It will make your hair curl. Private families supplied.
