

More Bells and Straps from New South Wales

These photos are courtesy of a collector near Bathurst NSW and shows an interesting assortment of brass and iron bells. Some have the characteristics of Denis Huges bells and considering the location, they may well be. Other items of interest are the authentic straps and very old hammer.

Grey kangaroos bound along a fence line on a property north of Bathurst.

